THANK YOU FROM THE NERESTANT FAMILY

“The Y is more than just sports for us, it means everything to us.”

That’s how Himler and Rebecca Nerestant describe their love of the Y. Busy parents of four children ages two to eight and guardians to three teenagers, they are frequent visitors, enjoying multiple programs and services. You name it, they’ve tried it: youth sports, karate, swimming lessons, kid zone, playing basketball in the gym, cardio workouts and weights.

Himler and Rebecca also appreciate the mission of the Y. Himler and his sons typically rise two mornings a week to read the Bible prior to heading to the Y to shoot hoops.

Members since 2018, the Nerestant’s also receive a scholarship which helps to cover a portion of their membership and program fees.

“Without the scholarship, our kids would not be able to live the full athletic lives they are experiencing. The Y allows us to help them explore so many options,” Himler says.

The Nerestants believe that their time together at the Y shapes and solidifies their family’s foundation. Rebecca warmly says, “The Y helps us to form solid memories as a family that our children will carry into their adulthood.”
